

The Spring Box

WHAT A VIBRANT LANDSCAPE

The call of the great outdoors

Spring wild flowers depend on good rains which were aplenty, so this year should be no exception to the rule. A visit to see this annual natural phenomenon is on people from around the globe's bucket list!

The West Coast is transformed into a vibrant carpet of colourful spring flowers. What better way to welcome in the spring season than with a flower-viewing trip? This year, late August to early September is the best time.

From Citrusdal to Clanwilliam, you can explore this magnificent spring wild flower show. Or, if you're up for a drive and love a scenic mountain pass, you can traverse the remarkable Pakhuis Pass to the Biedouw Valley, enclosed by the Biedouw mountains to the north and the Tra-Tra mountains to the south. The valley is known as a spring wild flower mecca with nemesias, lachenalias, babiana and ixias in shades of orange, yellow, pink and blue among others seen in an exquisite profusion.

Cederberg Wines makes for the perfect day trip during your flower-viewing safari with wine tastings on offer and handcrafted beers for sale. Or opt for a mountain stay at Sanddrif Holiday Resort. Comfortable and well-equipped accommodation with incredible mountain and river views, hiking trails and river swims, and nights spent under a canopy of stars offering some of the best stargazing in the Southern Hemisphere should clinch the deal. Spring trip sorted!

Committed To The Braai

All South Africans enjoy the sociable art of cooking over an open fire – it's built into our DNA! On 24 September this year, millions of South Africans will be commemorating National Heritage Day, which is also known as National Braai Day, around a fire.

Everything from braaibroodjies to chops and boerewors or potjies will be cooked over the coals as the enticing appetising smells of smoke and food grilling mingle and fill the air. So light those fires, open those bottles of Cederberg wine and get braaing!

David Nieuwoudt is a committed braai guy and has access to excellent quality meat from the Superspar's butchery in Clanwilliam, the nearest town. Here blockman Hendrik Slingers expertly cuts lamb chops to David's preferred thickness with just the right amount of fat on the side. The succulent lamb comes from Carnarvon in the Karoo.

Then there's Nicky Lategan's butchery in the Swartland town of Moorreesburg. David and his wife Cisca proclaim their beef to be the best and the sirloin steaks the most tender and tasty in the land!

"A family tradition that continues is my mom's braai marinade recipe."

— David Nieuwoudt

Huibrecht's Braai Marinade

Equal portions each of:

- All Gold tomato sauce
- Sunflower oil
- Worcestershire sauce

Mix together well and marinate the meat in the fridge for a few hours or preferably overnight.

ALL THINGS FRESH & NEW

Your Spring Circle Guide

Spring in the vineyards brings hope and celebration as the first green shoots appear, marking the shift from winter dormancy as each day becomes another step towards the next vintage. Sap courses through the vines, triggering bud break followed by flowering.

In anticipation of all things fresh and new – we thought to remind you of how you can best unlock your Cederberg Circle experience.
